

A superhero-themed celebration with 150 newly published young authors & illustrators! Plus hands-on literacy games, tons of giveaways, local authors and illustrators - all to inspire the next generation of storytellers.

 MEET THE AUTHORS

Students from 50+ school districts share their stories live. Guests will take home a freshly published I Write Anthology and meet these young literary superheroes!

* FREE FAMILY FUN

Families will enjoy a day of entertainment, food, and activities for all ages — blow-up games, scavenger hunts, Texas history activities, coding, comics, crafts, balloon art, face painting, free books & giveaways!

★ GIANT BOOK SIGNING READINGS

Guests can get a "hot off the press" I Write Short Stories by Kids for Kids Anthology autographed by our young superheroes and be inspired by kids their age reading their professionally published stories and poems.

SUPERHEROES AND COSTUME CONTEST

This year's theme is superheroes. Guests can meet real-life superheroes, mascots, and enter the costume contest for a chance to shine!

UR IMPACT
